Re: United States v. Ikram Mohamed, et al., 24 CR 15 (NEB/TNL)

Dear Judge Leung:

Pursuant to the Court's order (Dkt. 69), the parties have met and conferred concerning pretrial proceedings in the above-referenced case. I am writing to inform the Court about the case management schedule as discussed by the parties.

The government proposed the following dates:

1. The government will begin to produce discovery by March 15, 2024;
2. Pretrial motions due by Friday, June 15, 2024;
3. Responses to pretrial motions due Friday July 12, 2024;
4. Notice of intent to call witnesses due by Friday, July 12, 204; and
5. Responsive notice of intent to call witnesses due by Friday, July 19, 2025.

The government has met and conferred with counsel of record for the defendants and has received no objections to the proposed case management schedule, with the understanding that the parties can ask for more time if necessary.
